1. There was a new bunker-like building under construction on the wharf at Eichstaden (53° 54' N- 14° 15'E) near Swinoujscie (Swinemuende). It is placed about 200 meters north of an old German bunker. The scaffolding around the new construction has not been removed as yet. The building's dimensions are 20 by 20 by 80 meters. There were holes in the side walls. The informant believed that these were firing holes. The number and size of the holes is not known.
2. At the wharf at Eichstaden the informant noticed a large target consisting of a long shooting ski, where there were a number of raised masts. Between the masts was strung a network that reminded the informant of the type of nets used on radar reflector bouys.
